

FULL STEAM AHEAD AS DODD GROUP RELOCATES TO THE ENGINE HOUSE

Thanks to the resurgence of the construction sector in the South West, Dodd Group has outgrown its City Centre premises in Exeter, it's home for the past 26 years, and has relocated to The Old Broadclyst Station.

Employing 28 members of staff from the region, not to mention the 30 plus sub-contractor organisations that it provides work to, Dodd Group has recently secured several high profile projects including the refurbishment of Lympstone Manor for the two-Michelin-starred chef Michael Caines MBE

Ron Butt, regional manager, commented "We are delighted to have found a property so close to Exeter that will enable us to continue to grow. Just a stone's throw away from the M5 and Exeter Airport, the location really suits us as we are currently managing projects throughout Devon and the South West."
