

This morning our HR Manager is helping the students of Madeley Academy with their CV writing techniques. This workshop is an example of how local business can support their communities beyond the workplace.

We hope that this will help future generations to fulfil their potential - who knows, they may even apply for a position at Dodd Group.

