Celebrating its long standing commitment to training and development, Dodd Group has named Alex Goodman Electrical Apprentice of the Year and Callum Williams Mechanical Apprentice of the Year 2018. Both of these apprentices impressed the judges with their maturity and commitment both in the workplace and at college and were presented with their awards by their respective Mayors. The Mayor of Kings Lynn, Cllr Nick Daubney, a former mechanical trainee himself presented Alex with his prize whilst the mayor of Bridgend, Cllr John McCarthy, formerly from the power generation sector, made the presentation to Callum.
