

AND THE WINNER IS...

Last Friday our Property Care Division was awarded Contractor of the Year at the Building Communities Awards. The Building Communities Awards are hosted by procurement consortium, EEM Ltd, to recognise and celebrate professionalism, excellence and innovation within the housing and construction community. Picking up this award is a great reflection of hard work and dedication of our team.

