

Each year Dodd Group holds an Apprentice / Adult Trainee of the Year competition where staff from across the country are encouraged to nominate their best candidates. From a pool of over 80 trade and non-trade learners the competition is fierce. This year we are delighted to announce that the winner is Jennifer Bailey from our Stockport Projects team. Group Managing Director John Kavanagh was on hand to present her with her award.

