
PROJECT NAME:

National Support Centre, R.A.F. Coningsby

CLIENT:

BAE Systems

LOCATION:

Lincolnshire

M&E ORDER VALUE:

£3.5million

CONTRACTOR:

Kier Eastern

Dodd Group has recently carried out the Mechanical and Electrical Installations within the newly constructed National Support Centre for the new Euro Fighter aircraft (Typhoon).

The Building comprises of both office and technical workshop and diagnostic test areas.

HV / LV sub-station installation, External water and Fire main, Incoming Fuel supply, Internal Ventilation systems, LTHW heating systems, Chilled water systems, Domestic HWS & CWS systems Above ground drainage. Specialist power systems, General lighting and small power, Data and communications containment systems, SSG security systems, Hi-fog water mist system, Building Management Control System, Stand-by Generator.

