
PROJECT NAME:

RAF Cranwell. Air Load Master (ALM)
Building & Flight Training School

CLIENT:

Babcock / Lockheed Martin

LOCATION:

Sleaford

M&E ORDER VALUE:

£5m

CONTRACTOR:

Kier Construction

Air Load Master

The development included a new training fuselage with associated support and welfare facilities and is located within the pre-existing hangar 266. Dodd Group was responsible for the supply, delivery, off-loading, positioning, setting to work, testing, commissioning and demonstration of the complete electrical and mechanical services installation and provision of relevant maintenance documentation for the installation.

Flight Training School

Dodd Group was responsible for the supply, installation and commissioning of the MEP services associated with the new build flight training school comprising of training simulator teaching areas, offices, feeder facilities in connection with the arrival of the F35 aircraft into the UK.

This is a logo owned by Royal Air Force for RAF Cranwell. Further details: The image is the lead infobox image for the RAF Cranwell article and is used for identification purposes.

